

The following resources provide additional information about opioid prevention and bystander response.

Boston:

- AHOPE Needle Exchange
A harm reduction and needle exchange site providing a range of service to active injection drug users
- AIDS Action Committee Needle Exchange
A harm reduction and needle exchange site providing a range of service including the distribution of Narcan
- Victory Programs Prevention
Overdose education, harm reduction and naloxone distribution
- PAATHS Access to Care Program
Referral center for anyone (individuals, families, community partners, other treatment providers) looking for information about, or access to, substance use treatment services
- Safe Needle & Syringe Disposal
If you find a needle on a sidewalk or other public way, please call the Mayor's Hotline at 311. Provide the location of the needle(s) with as much detail as possible and the Mobile Sharps Team will locate and collect
- Medication Disposal
Turn in your unused or expired medication for safe disposal. Drop off is FREE, anonymous, environmentally friendly and accessible 24/7
- BPHC Drop-In Overdose Prevention Trainings
The Overdose Prevention Team is prepared to provide trainings to a variety of audiences included active users, medical professionals, community organizations, and students. Trainings are appropriate for all groups interested in learning more about overdose prevention and encouraged for those that are likely to witness an overdose
- 311 for Recovery Services
The City of Boston's confidential 24/7 referral center for addiction treatment and recovery services. Call 311, use the BOS:311 mobile application or visit the webpage